

Protecting New Workers: The Importance of Student Placement Safety

Ensure they know their rights

Make health, safety and wellbeing a priority

Understand that it's a shared responsibility

Every student deserves a safe, respectful, and positive placement experience. Let's keep them, safe, healthy and well at what could be their first job.

This placement is their future— set their future up for success

Scan the QR code to download PSHSA's student placement safety guides for students, teachers and employers.

